Install the software

1. Close all the applications open on your computer.
2. Insert the installation disc into your DVD drive, the welcome screen appears.
3. Double click on the "Tasmeem" file and follow the instructions.

Remove the software

1. Close all the applications open on your computer.
2. Do one of the following:
  - In Windows, open the Windows Control Panel and double-click Add or Remove Programs. Select the product that you want to remove, click Change/Remove, and follow the on-screen instructions.
  - In Mac OS, delete the Tasmeem folder located by default in Applications\Adobe InDesign CS3\Plug-ins\Tasmeem.

Activate the software

Tasmeem software uses online activation technology to help ensure you and your organization have a genuine copy of Tasmeem software.

Activation also helps protect Tasmeem from unauthorized software distribution. This technology prompts you to activate the license of your product within 45 days after you start it for the first time. This procedure is mandatory for Tasmeem Creative and Publisher Edition.

This verification process does not collect, transmit, or use any personally identifiable information. The activation process differs between Tasmeem Limited Edition, Tasmeem Creative Edition and Tasmeem Publisher Edition.

Tasmeem Limited Edition

The activation is not required for Tasmeem Limited Edition. Please note that a tryout of Tasmeem Creative Edition is available with Tasmeem Limited Edition. Therefore, at the first launch and 5 days before the expiration of Tasmeem Creative Edition tryout the Tasmeem License Status box opens automatically to inform you about the Tasmeem Creative Edition tryout status.

See above the Tasmeem License Status of the Limited Edition (menu Tasmeem ->License)

Tasmeem Creative Edition

A Product Key box appears at every launch until a valid Product Key is entered.

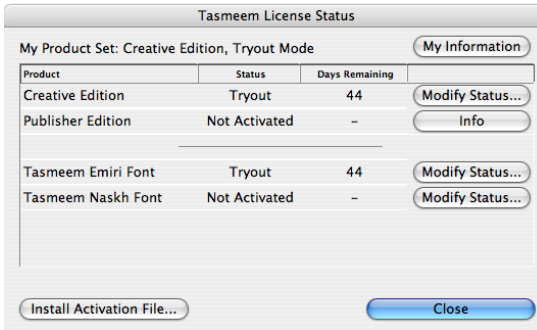

Please enter your product key that is located on the back of your Tasmeem DVD sleeve or in the email received from WinSoft.

Then click on “Activate”. The “Activate” button is greyed out until you enter a valid Product Key. If you don’t enter the Product Key, you can click on “Use as tryout”. The tryout will last 45 days. If a valid Product Key is not entered 45 days after the first launch, Tasmeem Creative Edition will expired.

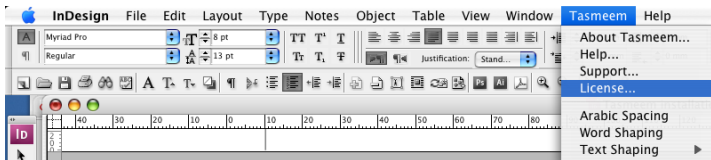

Once you click on “Activate” the Tasmeem License status box opens.

By default the status of the Creative Edition is “Tryout”. You need to click on “Modify Status” to get your activation file. Once you click on “Modify Status”, it opens an Internet page about Tasmeem Activation (Internet connection is mandatory). Then you follow the on-screen instructions to get the Activation file.

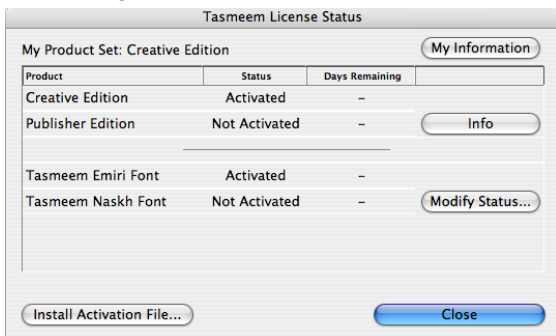

You will then receive the Activation file by email. Please follow the steps below:

1. Save the document (it is a .lic document) on a precise location in your computer.
2. Open the Tasmeem License Status box by clicking on “License” in the Tasmeem menu in InDesign.

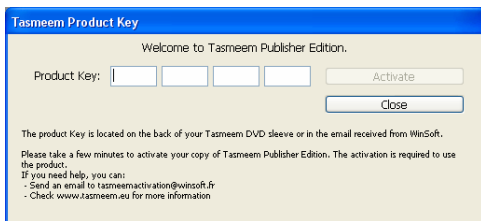

- Click on “Install Activation File”. Please select the Activation file that you received by email.
- A box appears indicating that the license was successfully installed and that you need to restart InDesign.

Once you restart InDesign, the Tasmeem License Status is as below:

Tasmeem Publisher Edition

A Product Key box appears at the first launch.

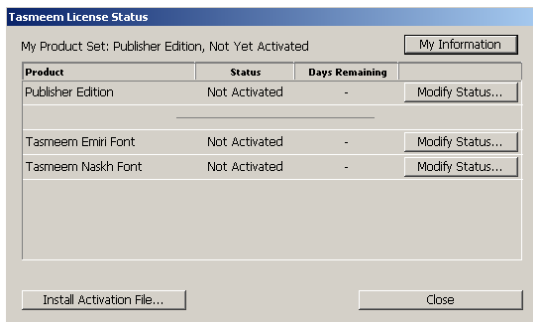

Please enter your product key that is located on the back of your Tasmeem DVD sleeve or in the email received from WinSoft. You will not be able to use Tasmeem Publisher Edition nor the tryout without entering the product key.

Then click on “Activate” .

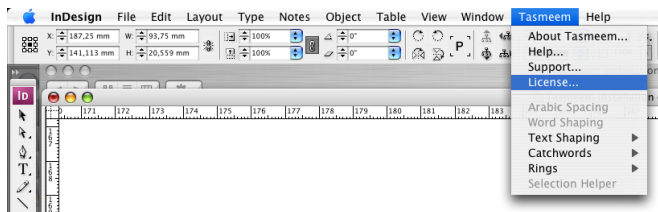

Once you click on “Activate” the Tasmeem License status box opens.

By default the status of the Publisher Edition is “Not Activated”.

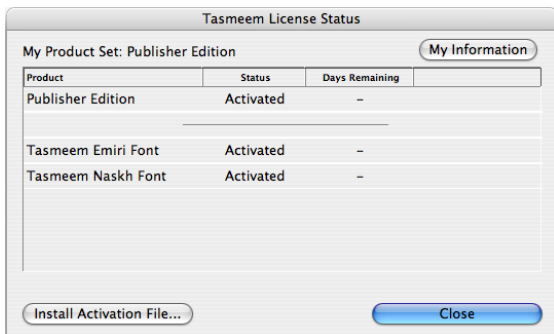

You need to click on “Modify Status” to get the activation file. Once you click on “Modify Status”, it opens an Internet page about Tasmeem Activation (Internet connection is mandatory). Then you follow the on-screen instructions to get the Activation file. You will then receive the Activation file by email. Please follow the steps below:

1. Save the document (it is a .lic document) on a precise location in your computer.
2. Open the Tasmeem License Status box by clicking on “License” in the Tasmeem menu in InDesign.

- Click on "Install Activation File". Please select the Activation file that you received by email.
- A box appears indicating that the license was successfully installed and that you need to restart InDesign.
